

ChildSafe Donor-Privacy Policy

ChildSafe is committed to respecting the privacy of donors, including online and offline donors. We will only share or sell a donor's personal information if the donor has given us specific permission to do so. Donors may ask us to remove their name and contact information from lists we share or sell.

ChildSafe communicates with donors to understand their interest in our mission and to update them on our plans and activities. We only share donor information with staff, board members, volunteers, and consultants on a 'need-to-know' basis.

If you have questions about ChildSafe's donor-privacy policy, please contact Maliha Imami at MalihaI@ChildSafe-SA.org or call 210-675-9000.
